"You Shall Know the Truth"

War is the sum-total of all crimes. Left to themselves no people would make war. War-makers are heartless, cunning, greedy All wars are for booty. The U. S. A. engaged in wars for the booty of the Allies and the destruction of free government by the people, of the people, for the people. Wars bring slavery and conscription, debts and poverty for unborn generations even.

Who Makes War with Russia 'Inevitable'?

Greek-Turk Fund Measure Signed

KANSAS CITY,—President Truman signed the $400,000,000 Greek Turkish aid bill setting in force a historic American foreign policy of bolstering weak countries against outside aggression as a "support" to the United Nations.

He called it "an important step in the building of peace" and said it offered "proof" that the United States will make "a vigorous effort to help create conditions of peace".

"The conditions of peace," he said, "include the ability of nations to maintain order and independence and to support themselves economically."

The President, reading his statement, departed from it once to reiterate that the bill "is a step for peace and support of the United Nations".

The measure, a far-reaching departure in international relations of this government became law in a mid-western hotel with Mr. Truman's pledge it would not be used to benefit "any particular group or faction".

The bill, as finally passed, pits not only American dollars but American military equipment and "know-how" into the campaign to stop Communist expansion short of the Mediterranean.

It calls for the money to take the form of loans, gifts or other advances as determined by the President. And it authorizes "limited" military missions.

Turkey is to receive up to $100,000,000 of the total, exclusively to modernize her army.

The $300,000,000 remainder is ear-marked for Greece, to be divided equally between military air and relief and rehabilitation work.

THE WAR-MONGERS WORK FOR 'PEACE'

With the signing of the war-loan bill to Turkey and Greece against Russia, the U. S. A. has officially abandoned not only the Monroe doctrine but every principle of domestic and foreign policy which the Founding Fathers held high in order to produce in America a nation where the individual citizen would be master and not slave. President Truman has signed a bill which definitely enslaves every American man, woman and child to pull the juggernaut of the Rothschild - Baruch - Rockefeller cartel across the living bodies of our own people and the rest of the world.

From this day on you have nothing more to say. You are to work to expand the foreign interests of the world-cartel; you are a number, not a man.

In the final analysis you are as much a slave of the state, controlled by Baruch & Cie., as is the Russian worker under Stalin. You have just a few more comforts and a little leeway to grumble and gripe, but the top cream of all your labor, earnings, your life and body and that of your children has to be devoted to the service of the FOREIGN interests of Wall street. You and your children are peons.

The development is natural and 'inevitable' because you don't hold with the Founding Fathers. They were opposed to military conscription; they were opposed to European and Asiatic conditions. You are willing to delegate the decision to the feudal and piratical interests of Wall street who control the President and the Congress. You prefer to go to the nearest honky-tonk saloon-restaurant on a binge and forget your duties as a SOVEREIGN citizen of these U. S. A. Hence, you sold yourself into peonage.

This nation was founded on the principle of STANDING ALONE, with Faith in God, in a world where feudal evils abounded. Here we came to exercise our God-given talents and our unalienable rights. Here the individual was the important factor for whose benefit the government was established that he may unfold his life in peace, justice and tranquility. Tyranny and conscription existed everywhere else in the world. Two large oceans quarantined us from those diseases. But the exploiters of peonage, the feudal land-holders and the usurers followed and persuaded us that we had to delegate to them the powers of decision since we were unable to know what is good for ourselves. They gave us booze and we swallowed it, proving ourselves unfit to THINK.

We are drunk with the notion that being born Americans, freedom naturally is our heritage. But that heritage has been signed away by Truman and the Congress. Instead of using our resources to produce plenty for ourselves, to give us comfort to live and THINK, we are giving away everything to make SURE that Russia will also throw all its resources for war. Instead of assuring the world that our energies will be devoted to self-development to improve our own government and set an example to the world that the individual is inherently peaceful and helps his neighbor to enjoy the bounty God gave us, we make war inevitable.

Abandon Morgenthau Plan!

Hon. Harry S. Truman, etc.
Mr. President:

Two years ago Germany believed she had surrendered to a savior, but now she must wonder that after 150 years of political experience, America has developed no further than to demand total punishment of an entire nation.

Any decent American must experience disgust at the United States and her former allies having systematically destroyed and plundered all of Germany's industry, agriculture, railroads, shipping and commerce; and having prevented for two long years the return of Germans to their peaceful professions before the war.

General Eisenhower shouted from the rooftops two years ago that we came as conquerors. As such we are under obligation to feed the conquered people. We hypocritically promised the helpless German population after having confiscated all their food supplies which had not been destroyed by our indiscriminate bombing, etc., that they would receive a daily subsistence ration of 1500 calories—but for months we have even furnished them less than half of these promised starvation rations and thus the United States and her former allies stand convicted before the world for having killed by hunger-death millions of German civilians —men, women and children alike!

What has become of the dignity of your high office, when after having issued such high-sounding proclamations on V-E Day, on V-J Day and again on December 31, 1946, when you declared an end to the hostilities—you permit power politics to be played in total disregard of the promises made to the American people, when your predecessor enticed them into World War II!

Is it any wonder that the American people feel that they are not only left with physical damage but also with impairment of their philosophy of life?

Everyone in this country now realizes the mistakes by the Republican Party made in 1936, 1940 and 1944, when its standard bearers compromised with their "Me too" policy instead of rejecting the follies, fantasies and fallacies of the New Deal.

And there are 25,000,000 Americans of German descent who are resolved to insist upon the carrying out of policies which will insure even-handed justice to all citizens, and to "the strangers within our gates", wherever the American flag and the American Constitution shall acquire control.

Unless the Morgenthau Plan, re-enforced by the Potsdam Agreement, which you personally agreed to without consultation of Congress, shall at once be abandoned, all Central Europe will face moral disintegration, and Communism will sweep all over Europe before the fall.

Hence our demand for a separate, just and fair peace for Germany.

Respectfully submitted,
KURT MERTIG . Chairman
GERMAN-AMERICAN REPUBLICAN LEAGUE

The Social Security Racket

WASHINGTON,—A strong movement developed on Capitol Hill to put 10 million additional persons under the social security program and to prevent the old-age insurance tax from rising beyond its present level of 1 percent on workers and 1 percent on employers.

Rep. Knutson (R-Minn), Chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, said his group probably will vote to bring 10 million self-employed persons under the old-age and survivors insurance features of social security. He did not say how this would be done. They are not on payrolls.

Also, he said a majority favors a two-year freeze of the social security tax.

If carried through, this would prevent an automatic jump Jan. 1 to 2.5 percent against employer payrolls and employe wages and would save taxpayers over two billion dollars a year.

* * * *

KEEPING THE PEONS FROM STARVING

The idea of the Founding Fathers was that every American be free to earn a living and provide for his own old age. He could farm his land, save his money, own a business, buy industrial stock or an annuity and be secure in old age or sickness from the results of his own providence.

But the Founding Fathers, like Dr. O. Z. Hanish for example, were ignorant of the science of political economics. They did not realize that economics control and determine politics. The belly has to be filled before any other thing can be decided. Since the virgin continent seemed inexhaustible, the Founding Fathers imagined that Americans could always move farther out into the wilderness and shift for themselves. And that was true till the wilderness gave out. Individual freedom is based in land-ownership. They failed to foresee the need of providing free land for everybody. And with the loss of free land, freedom, too, disappeared in America.

Henry George remedies that omission. But the land-holders have banded together and so misrepresented the issue, while the public schools don't present it truthfully, since the schools are communistically controlled by the land-holders and Communism and feudal land-holding is one and the same thing, hence the U. S. A. is losing its freedom, step by step;—that the common man does not realize the cause of his economic plight at all. He hears and reads about depression, tight money, the usurers, Baruch and Rockefeller, greenbacks, etc., but he is all confused. And the exploiters keep up the confusion by blaming the employers and the workers. Thus, employers fight workers and workers fight employers, therewhile the exploiters skim the cream from all industry and slowly, but surely CONSOLIDATE their control. The small businessman and small farmer is being killed and the cartel takes over. The end product is exactly what we see in Russia. The worker is a serf, the taxpayer is a peon and industry is cartel-state-owned.

Now this social security tax is a means by which the burden of providing for the destitutes produced by land-holding-usury exploitation, is being shifted to industry. Each worker and employer pays for "social security". Is it security for the employers or employees? No! It is security for the exploiters that the burden will not fall on them to take care of the victims of their exploitation. The social security fund goes into the general treasury of the U. S. or the states. The U. S. uses it up right now for general expenses and then levies a tax on all taxpayers for the social security dole. It collects not only more than is needed, from the workers and employees, but on top of that collects it twice: once from industry, spends it; then collects a second time from the general taxpayer.

Henry George showed us the fundamental wrong in our social economic system. He showed, first, that God made the land, therefore title is vested in all of us, all the time. We may sub-let the title for taxes, he called it the Single-Tax on land. And that is what every state is doing thru its counties and cities. You think you have absolute title to your land? Stop paying the tax for five years and see who has title. Therefore, title is perpetually vested in the state and sub-let to you at the tax-rate. If the tax-rate to land covers the full rental value of the land, then the government needs no other tax, is not entitled to any other tax. If the tax-rate is only 50%, then the government will have to levy more taxes to make up for the other 50% and the workers will have to pay it from their wages, industry will have to pay it from its dividends. And who gets the benefit? The land-holder. Thus he receives a special privilege, while industry has to add taxes to its products and here we have INFLATION, —prices represent tax-inflated cost.

Arthur L. (the Voice) Bell Wins Decision against Referee Brink

SAN FRANCISCO,—The U. S. Circuit Court of Appeal set aside an order of Referee in Bankruptcy Benno M. Brink of Los Angeles, demanding that Arthur L. (the Voice) Bell, of Mankind United and Christ's Church of the Golden Rule, render an accounting of all gifts received while heading the two movements. The Referee had ruled that Bell was not a natural person but exclusively a trust officer and as such could not own anything in his own name, as any natural person does, hence, whatever he claimed as his own belonged to Christ's Church of the Golden Rule, or Mankind United respectively, and having entered voluntary bankruptcy, the Referee's court took over all property belonging to these two movements. Bell was to account for every item, as belonging to the bankrupt estate, even there where Bell claimed private property. The Referee held that after the itemized accounting he would rule what or what not was church property and issued a very broad order for Bell to furnish the bankruptcy court with a list of all "private" funds received, their source and disposal. For disobeying such orders Bell was criminally indicted by a Federal Grand Jury. The case has not yet been set for trial.

Bell appealed Brink's order to the U. S. District Court in Los Angeles, but Judge William Mathes upheld Brink's ruling. The U. S. Court of Appeals seems to have restored Bell to his status as a natural person, having rights and privileges under the U. S. Constitution which Brink and Mathes had arbitrarily and capriciously denied him in their zeal to stamp him a fraud and a crook.

The ruling of the Appellate Court changes completely the complexion of the case now in bankruptcy court. Referee Brink had, by using the same subterfuge now ruled out by the Appellate Court, "convicted" Bell of "fraud" in the so-called "White Case" where Bell was charged with having fraudulently appropriated and induced the Whites, husband and wife, to "donate" real estate and money to the "Church" by misrepresentation. Brink, having no other "evidence" of fraud except Bell's refusal to account for monies received as a natural person, ruled that this refusal "convicted" Bell of fraud. The Appellate Court seems to have thrown out this type of "evidence", hence the White Case is wide open, while the whole compromise of the plan of arrangement, now in process of consumation in bankruptcy court, where it concerns the "dissenters" as against the "loyal" members of the Church, is rooted in the assumption that the White Case decision had weight. There being no legal fraud any longer, the dissenters would be entitled to nothing in accordance with the Church charter, which Judge John Preston had pointed out that in similar cases the U. S. Supreme Court had upheld such charter provisions.

There has been a conspiracy of miscarriage of justice, instigated by the CIO and carried out by the Attorney General of California, then, Robert W. Kenny, with the aid of the state court, and later with the aid of $20,000 illegal expenditures of state funds by Special Assistant Warren Olney III, to drive Arthur L. Bell out of California because he had succeeded in forming a very effective organization that denounced the war-makers as world criminals and demonstrated how humanity could live in unity without destroying each other in strife and warfare. The hysteria of "patriotism" for ruthless crimes during the war produced a very fertile ground and mentality which Gilbert Nelson, a deputy of the Attorney General and Olney utilized to depict Bell in the most perverted and distorted light as a fraud, because he created an organization, paralleling the lines of complete control adopted by the U. S. A. as a war emergency. Exactly as the U. S. A. vested dictatorial war powers in the president, Bell produced a counter organization for peace, in place of war, to center all the efforts and property of his followers under one control and survive the onslaught of the national and international murder organization.

It is patent that the courts and "patriotic" public officials who pervert the sense of oaths from the allegiance to God, to an allegiance to the Beelzebub of war, murder and misery, would gang up against Bell to silence his exposures of their insane perfidies in the name of God. So far Bell has not yet been driven out of California. If he persists, evidently, with the lessening of war hysteria the courts are returning to sanity, at least the higher courts, and the Bill of Rights is gaining headway again in spite of the mad rulings, such as Brink's and Mathes', now reversed, which flagrantly denied Arthur L. Bell his constitutional existence as a natural person.

When Bell had been indicted for "sedition" and convicted by a "patriotic" U. S. Judge in violation of fundamental law, since reversed by the same Appellate Court, he had asked his friends to contribute to a defense fund, making these donations unqualifiedly to him personally, to do as he pleased. Later on he continued the fund to cover every type of persecution against him, his lieutenants and the newly created "Church". Since Bell had sympathizers all over the states and the world, money came in freely for the sake of PEACE and the CHRIST.

Olney, Nelson, Brink and Mathes realized that to destroy Bell they had to destroy his resources. Knowing full well that many of the donors would become vulnerable to persecution by the anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith, Lipshitz and other rabble rousers, Olney insisted on getting hold of the list of donors and amounts donated. Bell refused, naturally, to accommodate the enemies of his crusade for PEACE against the crimes of war.

Mongrelism in Literature

There was a time when the SATURDAY EVENING POST represented what good had survived in America. It was considered a conservative publication in the best sense of the word. It conserved that which is good in the nation. Its appearance, its headlines, the character of the type used in text and headlines, the illustrations, the coloring and the contents, even a large part of its advertising showed good taste.

The newdeal has changed all that. The material change took place exactly at the point where the SATURDAY EVENING POST had to choose between freedom of the press and kissing the Jewish posterior. The pivoting climax materialized in the issue of March 28, 1942, when Milton Mayer presented the CASE AGAINST THE JEW. It appeared allright, but it was the last song of the dying swan of press freedom in the SAT. EVE. POST. Even the name was changed from the SAT. EVE. POST as it proudly denoted itself, to the POST, as it advertises today.

March 28, 1942, marks the day when the last literary bulwark of Americanism disappears from the U. S. A. The Jews raised hell when one of their kind described them in their native haunts. The fear of a Jewish boycott drove the directors to fire their American editor, Wesley Winans Stout and with that act they also changed the whole character of the SAT. EVE. POST. It no longer represents the best there is in the literary thought in the U. S. A., but is worshipping and eating at the Mongrel trough.

Ben Hecht, like Milton Mayer, knows his Jew. Here is how Hecht describes him: "Jo Boshere (born Abe Nussbaum) was a man of thirty—a dark-skinned little Jew with a vulturous and moody face, a reedy body and a sense of posture. The Jews now and then hatch a face which for Jewishness surpasses the caricatures of the entire anti-Semitic press. These Jew faces in which race leers and burns like some biologic disease are rather shocking to a mongrelized world.

"People dislike being reminded of their origin. (Jew-race is a bastard product of the lust, sexually, and greed of varied races, not born of divine attraction between lovers and dreamers.—Ed.) They shudder a bit mystically at the sight of anyone who looks too much like a fish, a lizard, a chimpanzee or a Jew. This is probably nonsense. The Jew face is an enemy totem, an ancient target for spittle and, like a thing long hated, a sort of magic propagandist of hate. Its persistence in the world is that of some repulsive and hostile fauna, half crippled, yet containing in its ineffaceable Yiddish outline that taunt and challenge of the unfinished victim. This, of course, is true only of the worst looking Jew faces and the worst Jew haters.

"Boshere was not quite so bad as this. The racial decadence which had popped so Hebraic a nosegay out of his mother's womb was of finer stuff than that glandular degeneration which produces the Jew with the sausage face; the bulbous, diabetic half-monsters who look as if they had been fished out of the water a month too late.

"These bloaters are truly a vicious drag on the vanity of the race, and nobody winces at the sight of them so much as the Jew . . . "
—Ben Hecht in A JEW IN LOVE, Jan., 1931.

One can notice that Hecht in his saner moods, analyzed what is wrong with his race. He does not pretend that Jews are not a race, but merely a "religion". But whether a race or religion, they are mongrels; for the Jewish religion contains all that is vicious in VOODOOISM, with its blood offerings of animals, while it plagiarized the finer aspects of Aryan thought, contained in Monotheism, yet, it speaks out of one corner of its mouth with Aryan tongue: "Thou Shalt Not Kill"; but slithers out of the other its Voodooistic jungle law: "A life for a life!", disclosing its hellish brew even in matters of religion, corresponding to its racial origin of Negro, Mongol and degenerate Whites who mixed their bloods.

The SAT. EVE. POST, like Henry Ford, had to take its stand of being American or Mongrel. It was faced with boycott by the Mongrels. It surrendered as Henry Ford surrendered. It fired its editor. It changed the whole character of its type, its appearance, its politics, its ethics, and, shall we say, its religion. Today it looks more like Collier's than like the organ of Benj. Franklin. Even its comics, the features of the characters show the imprint of perverts. Instead of beauty and wit, it reeks with that influence of modern "art" which cannot reach the divinely sublime, the truth in its aura of beautiful vision, the human form celestial, hence seeks diversion for the sotten and jaded taste in distortion. The Mongrel influence that fills the mind with perversion, because the Mongrel is unable to grasp pure beauty and find rest and inspiration in its contemplation, but seeks in jazz the stimulation of his Negro forebears, is evident throughout every page in the Saturday Evening POST. It has ceased to serve the interests of Americans and has become a tool for further Mongrelization and denaturalization of the Ideal of Life, Purity, Beauty, Principle, in short, of the American Way of Life as conceived by the Founder of that original publication, the Honorable Benjamin Franklin.

$ $ RULE HOLLYWOOD 'PATRIOTS'

MOSCOW,—Sergei Gerasimov, leading Soviet film director bitterly criticized the "un-American activities" committee probe of Hollywood and assailed Robert Taylor for denouncing the picture "Song of Russia", in which he starred.

In commenting upon Taylor's denunciation of the picture "Song of Russia" in which he said he was forced to play though he opposed it as pro-Communistic, Gerasimov said the film was at most "cordial but very naive".

He added:

"Times have changed and it became fashionable to disown these sympathies."

The Soviet artist said the handsome American actor made "good business" with his revelations that he was pressed into the film. Gerasimov added that it probably was a simple case of Taylor being "attracted by the smooth, round American dollar."

Gerasimov added that this dollar "quite comfortably comprises both honor, conscience and even the most elementary understanding of decency." He continued:

"One may assume that, in this respect, Taylor also has done good business."

Dewey Cannot Carry New York in Presidential Race

"New Deal" Governor Is Generally Disliked—His Only Strength Is In False Belief He Can Carry New York

NEW YORK, May 22 (Special).—Joseph & Stewart Alsop, widely syndicated columnists, had an article in the "Herald Tribune" on Monday, regarding the strange "strength" (?) of New York's New Deal "Republican" (?) governor, "little Tommy" Dewey. They wrote:

"The Republican organization leaders thruout the country DISLIKE DEWEY but think he can win. And the Republicans want a winner . . . . They are naturally obsessed with getting back to (the public trough).

"Taft's situation is the OPPOSITE of Dewey's. He is second in the field, and, although the organization leaders LIKE HIM VERY WELL, they doubt his capacity to carry the country." . . . . Strange psychology in politics.

Although Dewey has a fine, booming baritone voice (he is said to have been a singer in a Jewish synagogue), and sounds well on the radio, his personality on sight is of the cold and clammy type.

He was once an active member of the University of Michigan club of New York. But, strange to say, his name when mentioned by a club speaker rarely evokes so much as a single cheer.

His despotic championship of and tyranny in forcing through the infamous red law, the "FEPC", has definitely alienated him from the affections of at least ONE MILLION Anglo-Saxon citizens of New York State.

Apparently unknown to him and his camarilla is the fact that there are more transported WHITE SOUTHERNERS in New York than there are Negroes from the South. The first are lost in the general white population and escape notice.

More white Southerners here voted for Dewey last year (usually holding their noses as they pulled the Republican lever) than there were Negro supporters. DEWEY LOST HARLEM, as did Ives, the father of the "FEPC".

White Southerners will never vote for Dewey again.

As an extreme demagogue he was and is willing to sell out the white race in the futile endeavor to win Negro votes.

On the national platform in 1944 Dewey never made one true REPUBLICAN speech. He kissed the New Deal again and again.

Not one speech was the utterance of a statesman—not one showed breadth of mind; all exhibited ignorance of American political history; not one praised Lincoln—the founder, McKinley—the tariff exponent and champion of sound money, Theodore Roosevelt—the champion of liberty of speech and Americanism, and the long history of unprecedented PROSPERITY under G. O. P. leadership.

DEWEY'S DEMAGOGUERY ON LABOR

Remember that Dewey is a man utterly without business experiences or even a knowledge of business history.

To even think of nominating Dewey, who in 1944 in Seattle, Wash., on the stump, approved the vicious Wagner Labor Slavery Act, is treason to the 1947 Congress which is endeavoring to correct some of the infamies of that law.

Here is what Dewey said in Seattle: "The NATIONAL LABOR RELATIONS ACT is a GOOD AND NECESSARY LAW. It acknowledges the trend of our times and will continue to be the law of the land."

And immediately after speaking thus falsely, he admitted as much by saying, "But that law has been working badly" on account of the bureaucrats.

Was he too dumb to see that a law that "works badly" is a BAD LAW?

And we must not forget that this supposed party "leader"(?) has never opened his mouth during all the labor debating in Congress. It is just as well, or BETTER, since he has proved himself incapable of uttering a wise thought.

Incidentally, did you know that Presidential candidates often fail to carry their home States? The people know them there.

This Business of Playing God

Fredric Discusses the most ancient Mystery with his Dad

"Daddy," said our red-headed chip off the old block, "you wrote a few weeks ago in relation to a correction about Mr. Bell, 'It is mighty dangerous to play God and attempt to treat people as if all were cast in one mold.' Did you mean to say that Mr. Bell was playing God?"

"Why, certainly, Fred. That is why there is all this hubbub about him and his church."

"But I thought you supported his attitude, because he was doing good work?"

"Of course."

"Are you, when you say that he is playing God?"

"But he is, so why not say it?"

"Is it right to play God? It sounds awfully bad."

"Fred, we don't give a damn what anything sounds like. We discuss everything of public concern. This is our business and that is what must be done to shed light on the doings of those in the public eye. Bell is a public figure, so we shall throw light on all his activities and let the chips fall where they may, as the saying goes."

"Then Kenny, Olney, Brink, Mathes and the dissenters were right in charging him with fraud?"

"How come?"

"Well, you said he is playing God."

"But, my boy, you are playing God, too. Mother told me you chided her when she uttered a sympathetic laugh over the phone, listening to the tale of one of her friends. You insisted it was a hypocritical laugh. She says it wasn't. So you were playing God, telling her how to act. What business is that of yours?"

"I see. Then we all are playing God."

"But certainly. Does not Truman and the Congress play God when they make laws that decide life and death? Playing God is the most common daily occurrence, only people never think clearly enough to realize what they are doing. That's why I am highlighting it. Stalin says there is no God, so he decides to be God. There has to be somebody who makes decisions and says what is right and what is wrong. That one who is the judge plays God. And Bell decided whether his church-members should have a Tox-Eliminator and use it or not. So he is playing God for them."

"Well, daddy, I never looked at it that way."

"So much more reason why we should bring it out now since it is very important. It shapes all our lives."

"Is it right that we play God?"

"We cannot help it. We have to. You are my son. I had to play God to you when you could not think for yourself to make decisions, so you learned to obey my decisions. It's a great responsibility. But the instant I had you I could not get out of it. I still have it. What counts is that I be clear and know what is right and what is wrong. The greatest art is to balance all factors not to cripple you and paralyze your own faculties. You see, I am not supposed to make decisions for you where you must make them yourself. Too many mothers think their children never grow up and meddle in their lives long after they are no longer babies. That's the bad side of playing God. I have to know when to stop and let you carry your own responsibilities otherwise I hold you down instead of helping you."

"Thanks, daddy. I have to think this over now. It always sounded so bad to say that one was playing God."

"Yes, Fred, because few people play the game squarely. If we know what is right and people who don't know trust us to show them the way, then it is our duty. But when we impose our ignorance on others, that is what makes it bad. Whenever political leaders go to war, they play God in the worst sense of the word. So naturally, it has a very bad taste. But religion is the Science of God. We have to study it to know what is right and what is wrong. As we do, we have to teach others and then we play God to them."

VACCINATION RACKET EXPOSED

CHICAGO,—A high level of resistance to influenza is dependent on continual exposure to the active influenza virus under natural conditions and cannot be maintained by the use of formalized vaccines.

This opinion was given by Dr. Joseph W. Beard, Duke university school of medicine, at the 31st annual meeting of the Federation of American Societies for Experimental Biology.

"THANKS A MILLION!"

Dear Kosti:

Here is something to stimulate help.

Love, your friend, GO-GETTER.

* * * *

Dear Reader:

IRENE BEASLEY, the beloved radio star, from the depths of her great heart, coined the phrase, "Thanks a million".

The editor of THE BROOM is nothing if not grateful. But, like many others, I have sometimes been so overwhelmed by a multitude of duties and labors that, I am afraid, I have sometimes failed to express, as I wished and should have done, fully and again and again, the profound gratitude I always feel for every bit of financial help that has come to us, when I was "sweating blood" to meet the weekly bills.

Most of my readers know that without donations I should be unable to publish THE BROOM.

Even the "widow's mites" helped and were duly appreciated.

Put it in the words of good old John Bunyan:

"A man there was, and they called him mad;
The more he gave, the more he had."

And the famous epitaph:

"What I gave, I have; what I spent, I had; what I kept. I lost."

My dear readers must know that I am myself as generous as my income will permit. I hoard nothing. I give and spend all.

You will be remembered . . .

Your faithful, EDITOR.

Editor's Note: The above is not my appeal but an extract from a suggestion by one of our readers.

My dear friend GO-GETTER:

"Thanks a million" for your well-meant suggestion. But I had to cut out half of it. I never change the fundamental policy of THE BROOM to wheedle some money out of people. If it were money I was after I certainly would be in some racket that brings in lots of it. I am neither Rothschild, nor Rockefeller, Baruch, Winchell or even Winrod.

Those who still accept the Jewish religion as the fountain-head of Christianity will continue to deceive themselves and perpetuate war and strife.

I did not feel the "gratitude" in my heart you suggest in your letter to those who "donated" either hundreds of dollars, or a "mite". The pressure on me is so terrific, I am dazed all the time and feel nothing at all! I merely take the money, plug the holes, get out the next issue. And for this reason I actually never felt thankfulness towards the givers, any more than I consider to be owed thanks for producing THE BROOM. It is my JOB in life.

To the extent that we have yet people in America who long for freedom from religious superstition, foisted upon the race by the Jews and perpetuated as a well paying racket by Church and Synagogue; to the extent that the white man and woman yet have a sense of individual worth and freedom to THINK; to KNOW the truth without deceptive coloration; to that extent my readers will voluntarily share with me as dutifully as I give my whole life to this work.

The "recession" is tightening up. Those who are practical and have good sense, will do their part. You may express a million thanks; I am aware that the deed carries its own reward and am so busy using what they sent in to best advantage, that when they get the next issue of THE BROOM they are more than rewarded from its contents. There are many ways of giving thanks. The lily gives thanks by blooming and perpetuating its purity.

"Thanks a million" for your interest,

Love, KOSTI.

NEW YORK, (Special).—Magistrate Ramsgate of a lower East Side Court last week handed down his decision in the case of the People of the State of New York vs. Victor Riesel,, charged with criminally libelling Ahmed Hussein, Egyptian representative of the "Young Egypt" party.

The judge dismissed the action, on the technical ground that the headline in the N. Y. "Post" contained the "libel per se", and the prosecution had failed to prove that Riesel wrote the headline.

The judge, however, said that the prosecutors could still take action thru the District Attorney's office. Also, Mr. Hussein can still sue both Riesel and the "Post" for civil damages.

My dear Mr. de Aryan:

One thing can be said about you! You always give a man a chance to have his say. No BETTER thing can be said about ANY man who publishes for the public. Truths are eternal, and two and two will always add up to FOUR. A lot of people actually act as if they could change these inalterable laws. THEY eventually get dashed to pieces against the sturdy rock of Nature's laws. THAT also is Nature's law.

I do not claim to know anything about the brains our legislators are supposed to have to qualify to hold public office, but the requirement must really be so small that a gnat could rightfully hold forth in Washington. Just take the matter of all these strikes, for instance. Any fool KNOWS that there is alien influence in all strikes. All true Christian Gentiles are too peaceful and apathetic to bother with all this turmoil. All OUR Christian Congress needs to do is outlaw the anti-Christian leaders in unions and we could have industrial peace forever.

Until that is done there will be no peace in OUR Country or anywhere else. The reason is that these scum of the earth who have warped minds, and a will not to do any work, are determined to drag down to their own level the best of all mankind. This scum which is forward and aggressive like the stock from which it sprung, is certainly sub-human, and would gladly murder all decent people for the crime of having good manners and respect for the opinions of others.

That sedition trial in Washington is a good case in point. OUR OWN Government was SO controlled by this dirty scum that OUR Government dragged our OUTSTANDING patriots all the way to OUR Nation's capitol to be persecuted and demoralized to a point which true Christians would not even subject a pig or goat. We will NEVER have PEACE until we weed out this hateful element among us. The control over men's minds in this Country has been so complete that many editors and publishers have fallen prey to it, and have followed the party-line in denouncing all true patriots.

But this is the DAY of reckoning, and those who have denounced their OWN the worst, are in for paying the penalty for their ignorance. Sensible men who allow power and pressure to make them make statements contrary to common sense will now find out that two and two will always make four.

Henry, the Sanhedrin Stooge

Wallace reached a climax shortly after Mr. Truman asked Congress to extend $400,000,000 worth of political loans to Greece and Turkey in the hope of keeping those nations from going Red. . . . .

By this performance, he merely strengthened the advocates of the Greek-Turkish loans, weakened the opposition to them, and made more American haters of the Russia for which he strives to make friends and admirers. He got three results, in short, that were the exact opposite of the results he hoped to get. . . .

—Collier's.

Editor's Note: They planned it that way. Do you think the State Dept. would have chaperoned Wallace and Truman would have let him, if it had not been planned from on "High"?

Claim Avak Makes Child Walk, See

The child, Grace Lolando, reported to be a resident of this desert area, was said by witnesses to her appearance before the healer to have been carried in and then walked out.

Jack Serabian, interpreter for the 20-year-old Avak, said the child had waited three days outside the residence of Vintner Krikor Arakelian before gaining an audience with the healer.

Finally friends of the Arakelian family noticed her and carried her into Avak's presence, where he consented to attempt treatment.

"I saw it happen with my own eyes," said Serabian, who related the story afterwards.

"Avak stooped over, put his hand on the little girl's eyes and prayed. He took his hand away and asked,

"'Do you see me?'

"'Yes.'

"Then Avak took her by the hand," continued Serabian, "and said, 'come, let us walk.' The little girl hobbled about the room with Avak leading her."

He reported the girl left the Arakelian home on her own feet, although slightly assisted, and seeing for the first time in her life.

German POWs Find a Home for Evicted Family

WOODBOROUGH, England —Befriended by German prisoners of war, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Fox and their two children slept again with a roof over their heads. It was the curved roof of a Nissen army hut at the rear of Arnold Lodge prisoner of war camp here, which has now become the family's home.

They were ejected by court order from their cottage at Woodborough so that it could be taken over by a farm worker. When German prisoners saw the family squatting disconsolately beside their furniture at the edge of a highway, they immediately cleaned out a spare hut at their slave camp and moved in the Fox family and their furniture.

"We are more than grateful," Mrs. Fox said.

When Gerald L. K. Smith spoke in California some months ago and his meetings were picketed by 12,000 people, the organization which sponsored the picket line was the Mobilization for Democracy, headed by Mr. Robert Kenny, then Attorney General for California. Posing as a respectable American, Kenny announced that his organization was fighting bigotry and Fascism. In a dispatch which came out of Moscow May 1, Stalin's news agency PRAVDA listed Russia's best friends in the U. S. A. They put the name of Robert Kenny at the top of the list. It will be recalled that right at the time Kenny's organization was picketing the Christian Nationalist rallies, ISVESTIA, the other arm of Stalin's publicity program listed the worst enemies Russian Communism had in America. The name of Gerald L. K. Smith was among the six listed as opposing and fighting Soviet Russia's influence in the United States.

Dead Wrong

Federal City

Will America Go Negroid? . . . . How Soon? . . . . The Reds and English Gal Answer

By WASHINGTON ADAMS

WASHINGTON, May 23 (Special) — For at least 200 years the word "American" meant a WHITE person of European birth or ancestry who was a citizen of the United States.

George Washington and all the Founding Fathers used the word in this strict and exclusive meaning. Our non-white inhabitants were alway referred to as Negroes or Indians or Chinese, etc., never as Americans.

The celebrated Indian chief, Tecumseh, in his famous speech, quoted in books on elocution, referred to his own people as Indians or Red Men, and contrasted them with the white people, whom he referred to as "Americans".

Tecumseh never once thought of calling himself an "American". But the paranoiac Red Socialists, who hate the people who established this nation, like to refer to the American Indians as the "real Americans".

Ours is the ONLY country in the Western Hemisphere which has the word "America" in the title of its government — "The United States of AMERICA". This gives us a legal right to exclusive use of the word "American" as indicating our nationality.

From the year 1607 (when I had an ancestor among the first English settlers at Jamestown, Va., by name "Bell") the Anglo-Saxons of this country have DRAWN THE "COLOR LINE".

If we had not done so, we should have been a dark and swarthy gang of illiterate and unprogressive "mongrels", but little different from some of the peoples in Central and South America.

New York City, which once drew the color line as sharply as any Southern Anglo-Saxon city, is said to be "going Negroid" at a rapid rate, taking the "cue" from the "Melting Pot" play of the English Jew, Israel Zangwill (whose wife was an Anglo-Saxon Christian).

Governor Dewey, whose appearance is somewhat Eurasian, pushed through laws requiring compulsory social equality, and inviting the cottonfield Negroes from the South to locate in the metropolis. At least 200,000 of them are there now—unemployed.

Leave it to New York to "bust the color line in baseball". The manager of the Brooklyn "Bums" kicked out a fine white player and put in his place a talented, educated Negro at first base, Jackie Robinson,—the first of his race to cross the color line in the national game.

I feel sure that the majority of good Americans feel kindly toward Jackie and wish him success as a player. But I am also equally sure that at least 90 PERCENT OF WHITE AMERICANS WOULD VOTE AGAINST MAKING AMERICA A "NEGROID NATION" and would prefer to see Jackie back as a star in the fine colored baseball league to which he belonged.

Look what a reputation we are getting in the white countries! We've sent so many Negro soldiers all over the globe that our white "brothers" no longer consider us their "brothers", but look down upon Americans as already a "mongrel" breed.

The lively N. Y. "Daily News" on Monday, the 19th, quoted an Englishwoman dress designer, age 30, as telling "Mass Observation" (equivalent of our Gallup and Roper public opinion polls), as follows:

> "I think it would be marvelous if Russia and America had a war and left the rest of the world alone. THERE'S ONLY ONE CIVILIZATION, AND THAT'S EUROPEAN. Russia is Asiatic and the YANKS ARE MONGRELS—and all the rest of us could sit back and rake in the shekels, just like Eire and Sweden and Portugal this time."

In 1940 an English Lord snorted, "If the Americans don't want to join us in war, let them line up with the OTHER YELLOW peoples."

It is unfortunately true that we do have "mongrels" in America—but I should say not more than TWENTY TO TWENTY-FIVE MILLIONS, leaving from 115,000,000 to 120,000,000 Caucasian white people.

Of these, about one-half are of a fairly thoroughbred Saxon-Nordic type, from which come most of our scientists, educators, philosophers, inventors, writers, manufacturers, business men, statesmen and intellectual leaders.

In invention no nation on earth can hold us a light, although the English and German stand next to us.

It would seem that the English lord and the dress designer (along with perhaps a majority of their people) are making the same mistake that Hitler did. He had never been here, and he pictured Americans as already a Negroid mongrel race, and as chicken-livered as mongrels usually are, who would fall down in war.

Scientists say that less than half of the English populations are pure Anglo-Saxons, and if this be true, America has MORE ANGLO-SAXONS BY THREE TO ONE THAN ENGLAND HAS!

But the Reds are determined to mongrelize us as quickly as possible.

Miss Ethel Alpenfels of New York is reported as having said on a radio program that there were 800 organizations in America working to break down the color line.

SINCLAIR LEWIS, the famous author, has written a new book, "KINGSBLOOD ROYAL", which will do Americans much harm abroad if it is circulated there.

Its hero is an American "Caucasian", who discovers that one of his 16 great-great-great-grandfathers was a black Negro! . . . . This will cause every European reader to view with suspicion EVERY native American he meets thereafter, as being of part Negro descent!

Warren Olney III Reveals Himself

LOS ANGELES,—The bankruptcy trial of Christ's Church of the Golden Rule is taking its inevitable turn. It had been started by the CIO when Arthur L. Bell, trustee of "Christ's Church of the Golden Rule", refused to obey the commands of that labor racket organization and submit to paying dues for the members of the Church who were engaged in manual labor. The CIO instructed its stooge, then Attorney General of Californa, the well known Moscow fellow traveler Robert W. Kenny, to use the powers of his office and either destroy the Church or force its members to join the union. Kenny obliged by finding some dissident members of the Church and induced them to file claims of fraud and embezzlement against Bell. The superior court of Los Angeles ordered Bell removed as Trustee and Kenny's former office partner Allen was appointed to mis-manage the affairs of the organization, which threw it into voluntary bankruptcy in federal court.

Warren Olney III, an unscrupulous bloodhound who imagined himself a "patriotic" crusader against all "seditionists" who oppose war, was retained by Kenny especially to "prosecute" Bell and expose the "fraud", as Olney had "convicted" previously nine innocent persons who served almost two years in jail for the offense of not registering as "subversives" with the Secretary of State in Sacramento. The nine were subsequently freed by the Appellate Court.

Realizing that the State of California had no clear authority to continue to persecute Bell in bankruptcy court, nonetheless Olney and Kenny spent by their own admission over $20,000 in "convicting" Bell of "fraud" in Referee Brink's court. Two weeks ago, Brink ruled that Olney was violating the rules of ethics of the Bar Association when he pretended to represent five clients, members of Bell's Church, in order to stop a compromise by which the estate was to wind up its bankruptcy obligations. Yet, Olney did bring out a fact which has been ignored by the court and the attornies on all sides, namely, that the plan of arrangement which Olney tried to stop, violates the fundamental rights of the majority membership of the Church.

While Olney pretended to be interested in the welfare of all members, of course, he had to keep up the pretense, and thus, God moves in myserious ways His wonders to perform by using Olney to expose the injustice of the Referee and the inequity of the attornies representing all parties, when they conspired to rob the majority membership of their equity. That Olney is not truly concerned with the best interests of the people involved is evident from the fact that his actions have to date lost the Church at least $1 million, and most likely $2 million in cash and assets, by being thrown into court and ruined just when it was paying off its debts and mortgages. Yet, the line Olney pursues as argument, now, is exposing both Olney & the Referee; while the Referee exposes Olney by restraining him, Olney has shot his bolt that hit the Referee between the eyes.

Olney's argument and defense for assuming to represent the five was that the Plan of Arrangement gave undue priority to the "dissenters" who are to be paid in full before the 700 loyal members receive their share, in place of treating all members alike. And therein Olney is right. The Referee fell down in his duty of protecting all members alike. Even if he continues to hold that Arthur L. Bell, personally, is a fraud, nonetheless, since Bell claims no equity in the estate, the members all should receive their proportionate shares, since Bell's "fraud", if such, does not taint the claims of the 700 to their contributions in creating the estate.

Now that Olney has been eliminated, as he should have been eliminated from the outset, since the State of California has no other claim upon the estate except a tax-claim, perhaps the Referee will awaken to the truth of the charge contained in Olney's pretext of defending the equity of all members alike because the Referee fell short when he approved an inequitable distribution.

NATIONAL MADHOUSE

By MADISON MONROE

NOT QUITE UNDERSTANDABLE

WASHINGTON,—One of the very best and most dependable of the political columnists is John O'Donnell whose stuff originates in the N. Y. News and appears in a few newspapers around the country including the Times-Herald here. It is always breezily incisive and usually very emphatically on the nationalist or America First side. That being the case, it is a little difficult to understand why he should have devoted a large amount of space on two recent occasions to plugging the newly-elected Senator Martin of Pennsylvania as a reasonable choice for the GOP presidential nominee. Martin's biography in the Congressional Directory shows him to be very proud of his war record which is not greatly of value as a peace time executive. It is too early to sum up his senatorial service. He at least showed his freedom from Baruch & Co., by voting against the confirmation of Lillienthal, but then he turned right around and voted for the Greco-Turkish handout which, involving a truly basic issue, was much more important. His speech, like Senator Taft's on the same subject, indicated that he followed the leadership of the renegade Vandenberg in this matter with misgivings. That, in our humble opinion, makes it worse. So long as he had misgivings, he ought to have hung on to that $400,000,000 of the taxpayers' money.

RUSSIA NOT FRIEND BUT ENEMY

Instead of an ally, Russia has proved within two years to be an enemy, Representative Katherine St. George from the New York Dist. formerly represented by Hamilton, stated.

And the development, she charged, came about thru gullibility of the American public in swallowing New Deal propaganda.

New Enemy in Two Years

"Ever since our entry into World War I," she said, "the most important question before the American people has been foreign affairs. It is the question about which they knew the least and also the question on which their leaders certainly knew the least.

"Now within two years of the close of World War II a new enemy has been found, our quondam ally, Soviet Russia. There was probably more perfect nonsense fed the American people to give them the idea of Russia as an ally in the cause of democracy than has ever been put over before.

"It is a tribute to the unparalleled ignorance of our people that propaganda was completely successful. The picture of Russia as the crusading Gallahad fighting to save the free nations of Europe is laughable, if it were not tragic."

"Fought for Herself"

Russia has never fought for anything but herself, never stood for freedom of any kind, and is an "oriental despotism" of the type that have tried conquest since the dawn of history, she said.

"The modern American is not a patriot," the congresswoman added.

"If you look among your friends and acquaintances you will be surprised if you analyze them dispassionately and fairly how little real patriotism there is in this country today."

"There is a far cry from this modern America to the days when Patrick Henry said 'Give me liberty or give me death'."

SOFT PEDALLING ON B'NAI B'RITH

B'nai B'rith has just had a convention here for the purpose, among others, of electing a successor to its president, Henry Monsky, deceased, who is reported to have been the chief conspirator in the machinations of the Anti-Defamation League, subsidiary of this organization.

The only point in mentioning it here is that this event did not receive the all-out fanfare of publicity as on former occasions, even though Truman sent greetings and Attorney General Tom Clark was the principal speaker at the formal banquet. This is interpreted here as quite significant tending to prove that the Jews are very worried over the recent rapid and extensive reversal of public sentiment against their war-mongering, their racial arrogance, their trouble-making, their smear-campaigning and their general un-American subversiveness.

The latest blow is the denunciation by a New York magistrate of Birkhead of the Friends of Democracy which is known to be hand-in-glove with, if not actually an agent of, the Anti-Defamation League. The Jews are in a dither over the forthcoming Grand Jury investigation of Birkhead and his libelous smear activities over a long period of years. They were particularly virulent against Lindbergh when he was trying to keep us out of war.

SCULPTOR FREED IN MAIL CASE

NEW YORK,—Although denounced by the court, Austrian-born sculptor William Hunt Diederich was freed yesterday on a post office charge of mailing anti-Semitic postcards.

Federal Judge Vincent L. Leibell, in his ruling, upheld the old legal doctrine that a religious, racial or political group cannot be libeled.

He stressed that attempts to amend laws covering defamatory statements about racial or religious groups had been made in New York, other states, and in Congress itself, but that all had failed.

Leibell said Diederich's mailed matter did not hold up to ridicule or obloquy any identifiable person, hence he could not be prosecuted for libel, although the Judge did say that "the defendant's conduct merits the condemnation of right-thinking men" and that his mailed matter "indicates a fanatical and perhaps a diseased mind".

Leibell rejected a Federal motion for a warrant to arrest the 64-year-old Tappan, N. Y., sculptor and to have his mental condition examined.
